

MARYLAND FEDERATION OF REPUBLICAN WOMEN

A Can't Miss Convention, Oct 20-22

Headliner – Allison Ball, Kentucky State Treasurer

How about meeting the first woman President of the United States?!!

We wouldn't be surprised if it is Allison Ball! Not only is she a dynamic, thrilling speaker, she is the youngest statewide female elected official in the country. And we are having dinner with her. She has been outstanding most of her 36 years. A leader in college at the University of Kentucky, she was also President of the Federalist Society. She became a small town lawyer practicing a number of facets of law including bankruptcy, consumer rights, and commercial litigation. She has also prosecuted child abuse, and the list goes on. Allison won her election with over 60% of the vote. You have got to go to the dinner to hear Allison Ball!

When: 7 pm dinner at the Hilton, Gaithersburg, MD

6 pm Social Hour

MFRW state conventions meetings are terrific ways to meet others of like minds across Maryland!

While you are at it, don't miss the other events at the Convention including the important election of officers. Updated schedule is attached as well as the attached registration form or you can register online at www.MFRW.org.
